Correlative Conjunctions

1. Complete the sentences using either/or, neither/nor, both/and.

1. You can have _____ tea _____ coffee. Which one would you like?
2. I like _____ hiking _____ swimming. They are both my favourite activities.
3. She speaks _____ French _____ Spanish, so we'll need a translator.
4. _____ the dog _____ the cat is allowed in the bedroom. Keep them outside!
5. The restaurant serves _____ vegetarian _____ non-vegetarian dishes.
6. He enjoys _____ reading _____ writing novels. He's a talented author.
7. _____ Sara _____ Lily was present at the meeting yesterday.
8. You can take _____ the bus _____ the train to reach your destination.
9. The movie is available in _____ English _____ Spanish. Choose the language you prefer.
10. _____ my brother _____ my sister has a driver's license. We need to take a taxi.

2. Match the sentence halves that correctly use either/or, neither/nor, both/and.

1. You can have either...
2. Neither Tom...
3. Both the students...
4. Either we leave now...
5. She can neither sing...
6. Both the movie...
7. Neither my parents...
8. You can either stay...

A. ...nor dance very well.
B. ...the cake or the cookies.
C. ...or we miss the bus.
D. ...nor my friends liked the new restaurant.
E. ...and the book are excellent.
F. ...and the teacher were happy with the results.
G. ...nor his sister is coming to the party.
H. ...or go to the library to study.

3. Rewrite the sentences using either/or, neither/nor, both/and.

1. She likes apples. She likes oranges.
   → She likes _____.
2. I don't like math. I don't like physics.
   → I like _____.
3. You can visit London. You can visit Paris.
   → You can visit _____.
4. John isn't here. Sarah isn't here.
   → _____ is here.
5. We can go to the park. We can go to the beach.
   → _____.

© 2025 Grimoire of Grammar by Mateusz Węglewski

© 2025 Grimoire of Grammar by Mateusz Węglewski