

Passive Voice

1. Convert into passive voice.

The Present Simple Tense

[+]

1. I write the invitations.

2. You close the windows every evening.

3. He washes the car on Sundays.

4. She buys the tickets online.

5. We cook the dinner together.

6. They repair the bicycles in the garage.

7. My parents check the bills carefully.

8. Your friends organise the event.

9. Anna sends the emails.

10. Kuba opens the shop at 8 a.m.

[?]

11. Do we paint the walls every year?

12. Do you finish the project on time?

13. Does she water the flowers every weekend?

14. Do they clean the stadium after matches?

[~]

15. I don't drink the milk.

16. You don't use the computer in the evening.

17. He doesn't read the messages.

18. We don't recycle the paper.

19. They don't watch the news.

20. She doesn't send the documents.

The Past Simple Tense

[+]

21. I wrote the letter yesterday.

22. You cleaned the room in the morning.

23. He repaired the laptop last weekend.

24. She bought the flowers on Monday.

25. We cooked the soup for dinner.

26. They delivered the package late.

27. My friends organised the party last night.

28. The neighbour fixed the fence.

29. Anna opened the window a moment ago.

30. My brother broke the vase yesterday.

[?]

31. Did we send the invitations on time?

32. Did you wash the dishes after lunch?

33. Did she read the instructions carefully?

34. Did they clean the beach last summer?

35. Did the students write the test yesterday?

[~]

36. I didn't finish the project.

37. You didn't close the door.

38. He didn't repair the car.

39. We didn't use the printer.

40. They didn't watch the film.

The Present Perfect Simple Tense

[+]

41. I have written several emails today.

42. You have opened the documents already.

43. She has washed the floor this morning.

44. He has repaired the heater recently.

45. We have ordered new office chairs.

46. They have cleaned the classroom.

47. My parents have booked the hotel rooms.

48. The neighbours have painted the fence this week.

49. Anna has taken many photos during the trip.

50. Eve has bought a new laptop.

[?]

51. Have we completed the task yet?

52. Have you washed the car today?

53. Has he written the report already?

54. Have they repaired the bicycles?

55. Has the teacher checked the tests yet?

[~]

56. I haven't finished the presentation yet.

57. You haven't answered the message.

58. He hasn't painted the room yet.

59. We haven't sent the invitations.

60. They haven't washed the dishes.

The Past Perfect Simple Tense

[+]

61. I had written the report.

62. You had cleaned the kitchen.

63. She had washed the curtains.

64. He had repaired the roof.

65. We had ordered the equipment.

66. They had delivered the furniture before noon.

67. My parents had booked the tickets.

68. The neighbours had painted their house before the wedding.

69. Taylor had lost her keys.

70. Kate had prepared the presentation before the class.

[?]

71. Had we finished the task before the deadline?

72. Had you printed the documents before the lesson?

73. Had he checked the homework before the test?

74. Had they cleaned the gym before the event?

75. Had the teacher marked the exams before the meeting?

[~]

76. I hadn't completed the form.

77. You hadn't sent the email before the evening.

78. He hadn't packed the suitcase.

79. We hadn't printed the posters before the festival.

80. They hadn't washed the uniforms before the match.

The Present Progressive Tense

[+]

81. My neighbours are installing a new fence this afternoon.
-
82. I am signing the last document right now.
-
83. The robot is moving the crates to the storage room.
-
84. Your sister is buying the ingredients for dinner.
-
85. Our teacher is checking the final answers at the moment.
-
86. Two journalists are preparing an article for tomorrow's edition.
-
87. You are closing the windows because it's windy outside.
-
88. The children are decorating the classroom for the celebration.
-
89. Mr. Johnson is correcting the essays this evening.
-
90. We are printing the posters for the school event now.
-

[?]

91. Are the technicians repairing the air filters today?
-
92. Is Anna sending the updated file to everyone?
-
93. Are you recording the video for the project now?
-
94. Is the electrician installing the new lighting system?
-
95. Are the students preparing the presentation for Monday?
-

[~]

96. The cyclists aren't following the route instructions at the moment.
-
97. I am not finishing the assignment right now.
-
98. Your parents aren't organising the meeting this week.
-
99. The delivery team is not packing the fragile items yet.
-
100. You aren't completing the form correctly.
-

The Past Progressive Tense

[+]

101. My cousins were organizing a birthday surprise yesterday.

102. Emma was preparing the presentation when I called her.

103. The volunteers were cleaning the park in the afternoon.

104. I was writing a report while everyone else was relaxing.

105. The assistant was printing the documents for the meeting.

106. Two engineers were checking the ventilation system.

107. You were closing the shop when the storm started.

108. The rescue team was carrying the injured skier to the ambulance.

109. We were collecting signatures for the petition at that time.

110. The documentary crew was recording interviews all day.

[?]

111. Was Olivia sending the files during the break?

112. Were your classmates completing the group task then?

113. Was the technician installing the new router yesterday?

114. Were the librarians organizing the archives at that moment?

115. Was the coach preparing the players for the match?

[~]

116. The directors weren't reviewing the proposals at that time.

117. I wasn't finishing the assignment when you texted me.

118. Daniel was not repairing the laptop during the lesson.

119. The gardeners were not planting the trees yesterday.

120. You weren't sorting the materials before the workshop.

The Future Simple Tense

[+]

121. Lena will organize the charity auction next weekend.

122. A group of researchers will test the new vaccine this year.

123. The marketing team will design a fresh advertisement for the brand.

124. Local builders will renovate the old stadium soon.

125. The hotel staff will prepare the conference room tomorrow morning.

[?]

126. Will your classmates complete the group project on time?

127. Will the city council repair the damaged road next month?

128. Will her brother buy a new laptop this year?

129. Will the technicians install the lighting system tomorrow?

130. Will the actors film additional scenes for the movie?

[~]

131. The supervisors will not review the applications this week.

132. My friends will not finish the decorations before Friday.

133. The committee won't approve the updated rules.

134. Our school will not organize a trip in December.

135. Customers won't buy the product without a discount.

The Future Progressive Tense

[+]

136. My aunt will be baking a chocolate cake for the family tomorrow.

137. The volunteers will be organizing donation boxes all next week.

138. Daniel will be preparing a short speech during the ceremony.

139. The museum staff will be arranging the artifacts on Monday morning.

140. A group of engineers will be testing the new engine throughout the day.

[?]

141. Will the receptionists be checking the guest list in the afternoon?

142. Will your cousins be presenting their research on Friday?

143. Will the carpenter be repairing the wooden benches this afternoon?

144. Will the design team be creating new graphics for the exhibition next month?

145. Will the hikers be preparing their meals at the campsite every evening?

[~]

146. The orchestra will not be rehearsing any new pieces tonight.

147. The delivery drivers will not be transporting packages during the storm.

148. The committee will not be discussing the proposal next Monday.

149. Local artists will not be displaying their paintings at the event this year.

150. We will not be reviewing the applications over the weekend.

The Future Perfect Simple Tense

[+]

151. Our research team will have completed the climate report by December.
-
152. The local builders will have renovated the town hall by next month.
-
153. Amelia will have translated all the documents before the meeting starts.
-
154. The publishing house will have released the new edition by this time next year.
-
155. The runners will have crossed the finish line by midday.
-

[?]

156. Will the interns have finished the training by Friday?
-
157. Will the designers have created the final logo by tomorrow morning?
-
158. Will your grandparents have prepared the holiday meal by the evening?
-
159. Will the IT department have updated the system by the weekend?
-
160. Will the event organisers have arranged all the tables by noon?
-

[~]

161. The directors will not have reviewed the financial report by Tuesday.
-
162. The hikers won't have reached the mountain shelter by sunset.
-
163. The marketing team will not have completed the campaign plan by next quarter.
-
164. The participants will not have learned all the procedures by the end of the course.
-
165. Our group won't have solved the complex problem before the presentation.
-

The Present Perfect Progressive Tense

[+]

166. My neighbours have been renovating their old house for months.
-
167. Olivia has been preparing the conference materials since yesterday.
-
168. Several researchers have been analysing the collected samples for weeks.
-

[?]

169. Has your brother been fixing his motorbike all afternoon?
-

[~]

170. The marketing team has not been updating the website regularly this year.
-

The Past Perfect Progressive Tense

[+]

171. Several volunteers had been organising the charity event for months before it finally took place.
-
172. My aunt had been preparing the wedding decorations for hours before the guests arrived.
-
173. The researchers had been examining the rare documents for days before they revealed their findings.
-

[?]

174. Had your neighbours been repainting their house for weeks before the weather turned bad?
-

[~]

175. The marketing department had not been promoting the new product effectively before the campaign changed direction.
-

The Future Perfect Progressive Tense

[+]

176. By this time next year, the volunteers will have been organising the festival for over eight months.
-
177. By the end of autumn, Maya will have been preparing the exhibition pieces for half a year.
-
178. By the moment the meeting starts, the technicians will have been testing the equipment for hours.
-

[?]

179. Will the editors have been reviewing the manuscripts for several days by the time the deadline comes?
-

[~]

180. The supervisors will not have been monitoring the production line consistently for the entire season.
-

Modal Verbs – Basic Forms

[+]

181. Employees must complete the training before starting their new roles.

182. You should submit your application before the deadline.

183. Students can access the online resources using their school email.

184. The company may require additional documentation for the application process.

185. We might consider extending the deadline for the project.

[?]

186. Must employees submit the report by the end of the day?

187. Should the courier deliver the package to the main office?

188. Can students access the online resources using their school email?

189. May guests bring their own drinks to the party?

190. Might the company have sold out the tickets by now?

[~]

191. Employees must not ignore the safety instructions during the training.

192. Students should not submit incomplete assignments.

193. The guests may not bring outside food into the venue.

Modal Verbs – Modal Perfect Simple

[+]

194. The auditors must have checked the financial records before the inspection.
-
195. Your team should have completed the task earlier this week.
-
196. The courier may have delivered the parcel to the wrong address.
-
197. The interns might have prepared the documents incorrectly.
-
198. The committee could have rejected the proposal last night.
-

[?]

199. Could the technicians have repaired the server by yesterday?
-
200. Should the chef have prepared the vegetarian dishes earlier?
-
201. Might the organisers have booked the wrong venue?
-

[~]

202. The archivists must not have stored the files properly.
-
203. The team might not have followed the instructions correctly.
-
204. The organisers may not have sent the invitations on time.
-
205. The technicians could not have configured the system correctly yesterday.
-
206. The translators should not have ignored the updated instructions.
-

Modal Verbs – Modal Progressive

[+]

207. The technicians must be installing the new equipment right now.

208. You should be writing the introduction instead of the summary.

209. The designers may be creating a new layout for the website.

210. Our group might be preparing the presentation at this moment.

211. The journalists could be interviewing the mayor this afternoon.

[?]

212. Could the employees be organising the storage room now?

213. Should the cleaners be washing the floors during opening hours?

214. May the musicians be rehearsing backstage?

[~]

215. The students should not be copying the answers during the lesson.

216. The workers may not be following the safety procedures right now.

217. The assistants might not be organising the archive properly this week.

Modal Verbs – Modal Perfect Progressive

[+]

218. The researchers must have been analysing the samples for hours.

219. Your colleagues should have been preparing the report all week.

220. The volunteers may have been organising the event since morning.

221. The engineers might have been testing the prototype overnight.

222. The assistants could have been arranging the documents incorrectly.

[?]

223. Could the mechanics have been repairing the car for so long?

224. Should the actors have been rehearsing more intensively?

225. Might the students have been copying the answers during the test?

[~]

226. The editors should not have been revising the draft so late at night.

227. The analysts may not have been reviewing the data carefully enough.

228. The delivery team might not have been handling the fragile items correctly.

229. The supervisors might not have been monitoring the system closely.

Be going to

[+]

230. I am going to finish the presentation before dinner.
-
231. The assistants are going to prepare the conference materials this afternoon.
-
232. Emma is going to send the updated file to everyone.
-
233. We are going to organise a short meeting after lunch.
-
234. The repair team is going to replace the old cables tomorrow.
-
235. They are going to book the venue for the workshop next week.
-

[?]

236. Are you going to print the documents today?
-
237. Is the photographer going to take new promotional photos?
-
238. Are the students going to finish the group project tonight?
-
239. Is your brother going to fix the laptop this evening?
-
240. Are we going to invite the new participants to the meeting?
-

[~]

241. I am not going to change the layout before the consultation.
-
242. They are not going to review the applications this week.
-
243. She is not going to prepare the summary today.
-
244. The organisers are not going to print the brochures yet.
-
245. You are not going to send the documents without checking them first.
-

1. The volunteers are arranging the chairs for the ceremony.

2. Did your cousin repair the old printer last week?

3. The students haven't submitted the final version yet.

4. Will the organisers prepare the banners for tomorrow?

5. The technicians aren't checking the cables right now.

6. The company launched three new services last year.

7. Can the courier deliver the document today?

8. The cleaners didn't wash the windows properly.

9. The board approves the safety rules every January.

10. Are the students practising their dialogues now?

11. The gardener isn't planting the roses today.

12. The teacher gave the class a new assignment yesterday.

13. The team will design the new logo soon.

14. Should the chef prepare a vegetarian option as well?

15. The assistants haven't sorted the folders yet.

16. Did the technician change the batteries?

17. The engineers are installing upgraded software this afternoon.

18. We won't accept the final version without changes.

19. The children painted colourful posters for the festival.

20. Could the lab assistants check the samples again?

21. The students were preparing their models when I entered.

22. Will the technicians be repairing the network tonight?

23. The committee hasn't approved the new policy yet.

24. The musicians were practising the melody repeatedly.

25. The project team will have finished the design by Monday.

26. Were the researchers analysing the data yesterday evening?

27. The staff will be organising the materials all morning.
-
28. The printers haven't produced clear copies today.
-
29. The architect had sent the sketches before the meeting.
-
30. The athletes will have completed the test before lunchtime.
-
31. The cleaners were washing the carpets when the guests arrived.
-
32. Will the editors be checking the submissions tomorrow?
-
33. The engineers have improved the prototype significantly.
-
34. The assistants weren't organising the materials correctly.
-
35. The director will sign the updated agreement next week.
-
36. Has the courier delivered the urgent parcel yet?
-
37. The gardeners are trimming the hedges this afternoon.
-
38. The university didn't release the results on time.
-
39. Will your group complete the final storyboard soon?
-
40. The technicians have repaired the damaged cables.
-
41. The students aren't finishing their tasks quickly enough.
-
42. Did the company release the financial statement?
-
43. The librarian placed the new books on display yesterday.
-
44. The committee will review the applications today.
-
45. Could the assistants prepare the printed copies now?
-
46. The performers were rehearsing their lines all morning.
-
47. We haven't checked the final instructions yet.
-
48. The chef won't prepare desserts this evening.
-
49. The organizers collected all registration forms yesterday.
-
50. Are the decorators painting the conference hall?
-
51. The volunteers had prepared the hall before the guests arrived.
-
52. The IT team is updating the entire system today.
-
53. The students won't print the materials until tomorrow.
-

54. Did the musician record the new song last night?
-
55. The reporters have written detailed reviews already.
-
56. The workers were repairing the roof during the storm.
-
57. Will the participants bring their presentations?
-
58. The designer didn't upload the final layout.
-
59. The editor is checking the grammar in the last chapter.
-
60. The sponsors will support the event again next year.
-
61. The assistants hadn't prepared the folders before the meeting.
-
62. The teachers are marking papers this evening.
-
63. Has your class created the posters?
-
64. The producer won't release the trailer until Friday.
-
65. The guests brought gifts for the hosts.
-
66. Will the team test the prototype this afternoon?
-
67. The orchestra didn't perform the last movement.
-
68. The company is launching a new platform soon.
-
69. The journalists were interviewing the minister.
-
70. The students will have rehearsed the scene by 4 p.m.
-
71. The doctor explained the procedure clearly.
-
72. Will the photographer edit the pictures quickly?
-
73. The director hasn't reviewed the updated version yet.
-
74. The coach was preparing the training plan in the office.
-
75. The team may require additional resources.
-
76. The committee might not approve the changes.
-
77. The assistant has been organising the archive since morning.
-
78. The inspectors had been checking the documents for hours.
-
79. The students won't be recording the audio today.
-
80. Did the restaurant serve the new menu yesterday?
-

81. The engineers will be testing the engine tomorrow.
-
82. The volunteers didn't distribute the leaflets.
-
83. Has the team corrected the calculations already?
-
84. The designer will have updated the page by noon.
-
85. The librarian isn't cataloguing the new items right now.
-
86. The organisers collected all digital submissions.
-
87. The students should submit their essays today.
-
88. Will the speakers send their presentations in advance?
-
89. The staff weren't checking the registrations earlier.
-
90. The chef prepared several vegan dishes for the guests.
-
91. The servers are installing the security patch.
-
92. The professor hasn't updated the reading list yet.
-
93. Did the team analyse the feedback?
-
94. The workers won't start the renovation until June.
-
95. The student completed the graphics assignment today.
-
96. Are the organisers arranging the seats already?
-
97. The reviewer didn't correct the formatting errors.
-
98. The technicians will have fixed all devices by evening.
-
99. The theatre group has prepared the stage decorations.
-
100. Will the helpers distribute the programmes at the entrance?
-

2. Convert into active voice.

1. By next Friday, the report will have been submitted by the team.

2. Was the car going to be repaired by the mechanic yesterday?

3. The project is going to be discussed at the meeting next week.

4. The letter must be written by the end of the day.

5. Will the new policy have been implemented by the end of the month?

6. The keys are going to be found by someone soon.

7. The concert was going to be cancelled by the organizers due to bad weather.

8. The cake can be baked by anyone following the recipe.

9. The tickets are not going to be sold by the end of the day.

10. The problem should be solved by the IT department.
